At Rumour we are committed to bringing you fresh, seasonal and home produced food and, as members of the Slow Food Movement, - we work closely with local producers and suppliers to source the very best of what is available. None of our food is bought in, we prefer to make everything on a daily basis - from bread to pasta. You will not find a pre-made stock or sauce in our stores! As all our food is cooked to order, we would appreciate your patience at busy periods.

Please note that whilst every effort is made to remove bones from chicken and fish, some may still remain.
